

Needs Based vs. Worship Based Corporate Prayer

Needs vs. Worship Based Corporate Prayer
Needs Based	Worship Based
Defines “prayer” as “asking and receiving” or “getting things from God”	Defines “prayer” as an exercise of worship. Prayer is not a grocery list or an organ recital.
The focus is on ourselves and our needs.	The focus is the Person of God.
This kind of prayer meeting is boring and just dead.	This kind of prayer meeting is alive with the presence of the eternal living God.
Five minutes of this kind of praying seems like an hour.	An hour of this kind of praying seems like Five minutes.
This is like a teenager when he wants money, something to eat, a change of clothes or the keys to the car.	This is like a child that just wants to spend time with his Father and enjoy His presence.
If we touch God God’s heart - - - -	We will have the blessing of His hand.
Needs Based prayer is a grocery list of our problems.	Worship Based prayer is a celebration of our problem solver.
As we pray with focus on ourselves and our needs we become more dissatisfied with life.	As we pray together in worship-based prayer, we draw near to God and are conformed to Him.
We can understand our needs only after we--	Have worship and submitted to God.
According to Mat 6:33 “and all these things will be added to you.”	When you “..seek first His kingdom and His righteousness,
It must grieve the Spirit of God when we ask for more	When we haven’t thanked and praised God for what He has already given.
